

Yukon Zinc Corporation

- ▶ Is a privately owned mining, exploration and development company based in Vancouver, Canada
- ▶ Has been active in the southeast Yukon region for 10+ years and has taken the Wolverine Mine from exploration through development into operation
- ▶ Wolverine Mine is currently ramping up to commercial production

Wolverine Mine

- ▶ High grade underground zinc-silver mine
- ▶ Full production is 1,700 tonnes per day
- ▶ 'Dry', fly-in, fly-out camp
- ▶ Located between Ross River and Watson Lake off the Yukon's Robert Campbell Highway, ~280 km by air northeast of Whitehorse, YT

